

The New Jersey Education Foundation Partnership 2011 Student Program Offerings

Registration Deadlines: March 16, 2011

8th Annual Woodrow Wilson Public Affairs Forum Friday, May 6, 2011, 9 a.m. – 2 p.m. Woodrow Wilson School of Public and International Affairs, Princeton University.

Topics and speakers have not yet been decided, but past topics have included: Globalization, The Patriot Act, U.S. Foreign Policy & National Security, Polarization of American Politics, the Arab-Israel Conflict, the Future of the Middle East Peace Process. The forum is open to junior and senior high school students.

Each participating high school can send up to 20 people (this includes the chaperone). Seating is limited to 200 people, so registration will be limited to 10-11 school districts. Register early so you don't miss out. Please have school/BOE approval when registering. For more information or to register your school, email Carol Jackson, NJEFP Student Program Chairperson, at cjackson@metricon.com or studentprograms-ww@njefp.org, or call NJEFP 609-310-1795.

"Rider Presents"

Tuesday, April 26, 2011, 10 a.m. – 2 p.m.

Rider University. Registration deadline: March 16, 2011

This program is for sophomore and junior high school students interested in the performing arts. There will be two morning workshops, lunch, and an afternoon performance. Each participating high school can send up to 20 people (this includes the chaperone). Seating is limited to 150 people, so registration will be limited to 8 school districts. Register early so you don't miss out. Please have school/BOE approval when registering. For more information or to register your school, e-mail Ivy Cohen, NJEFP "Rider Presents" Coordinator, at studentprograms-rider@njefp.org or call NJEFP at 609-310-1795.

More Information

- If your school district is interested in sending students to both programs, please complete two (2) registration forms and let us know which program is your first priority. This will allow us to serve as many schools as possible.
- There are no registration fees for either student program.
- Lunch will be provided at both programs, so the only cost to school districts is their transportation to and from the venue.
- Please make sure you have school district approval prior to submitting registration application(s).
- For general information regarding both programs, contact NJEFP at info@njefp.org or 609-310-1795.
